FAIRBANKS, Aug. 4.-A total of $2,077.50 was received at the sale of city property for delinquent taxes concluded this morning by City Clerk ed by the city for taxes, penalties and court costs due from the 1913 taxes and a sum of probably nearly a similar amount will be deducted for back taxes. Under the law, the city may retain all the money due it for taxes, so that in this way the city will clean up all taxes due it on the descriptions of property advertised for sale. Probably between $800 and $900 will be retained eventualy by the city from the $2,000 paid in as settlement of all taxes due.

FAIRBANKS COLLECTS

In the beginning there were 198 pleces of property listed for sale. Before the sale actually took place, 100 of these pieces were taken off the list by reason of the taxes due upon them having been paid by the owners. Therefore the 98 pieces or descriptions actually sold brought $2,077.55. As provided by law Clerk Pauli will at once termination of which the "Ruby Spir proceed to return to the owners of it" is composed. the property all moneys received over and above the amount due on taxes .-Fairbanks News-Miner.
